The triarchic theory of intelligence was formulated by Robert J. Sternberg, a prominent figure in research of human intelligence.The theory by itself was among the first to go against the psychometric approach to intelligence and take a more cognitive approach.The three meta components are also called triarchic components. Sternberg's definition of human intelligence is "(a) mental activity ...

Intelligence To be intelligent you first have to know what being Intelligent is. And you also have to know what being ignorant is. Ignorant is just another word for "Not knowing". But not knowing is not always obvious or clearly understood. That's because learning is not fully understood. The more you learn the more you should realize what you didn't know.
